

MOZARKITE Mozarkite is the state gemstone of Missouri, USA. It is a banded variety of Chert famous for it's delicate shades of pink, lavender, beige, cream and even black. Mozarkite takes a fine polish and is used in jewelry and other ornamental objects. The name is a combination of Mo for Missouri and Zark for the Ozark Hills where it is found. Source: Lincoln County, Missouri	MOZARKITE Mozarkite is the state gemstone of Missouri, USA. It is a banded variety of Chert famous for it's delicate shades of pink, lavender, beige, cream and even black. Mozarkite takes a fine polish and is used in jewelry and other ornamental objects. The name is a combination of Mo for Missouri and Zark for the Ozark Hills where it is found. Source: Lincoln County, Missouri
MOZARKITE Mozarkite is the state gemstone of Missouri, USA. It is a banded variety of Chert famous for it's delicate shades of pink, lavender, beige, cream and even black. Mozarkite takes a fine polish and is used in jewelry and other ornamental objects. The name is a combination of Mo for Missouri and Zark for the Ozark Hills where it is found. Source: Lincoln County, Missouri	MOZARKITE Mozarkite is the state gemstone of Missouri, USA. It is a banded variety of Chert famous for it's delicate shades of pink, lavender, beige, cream and even black. Mozarkite takes a fine polish and is used in jewelry and other ornamental objects. The name is a combination of Mo for Missouri and Zark for the Ozark Hills where it is found. Source: Lincoln County, Missouri
MOZARKITE Mozarkite is the state gemstone of Missouri, USA. It is a banded variety of Chert famous for it's delicate shades of pink, lavender, beige, cream and even black. Mozarkite takes a fine polish and is used in jewelry and other ornamental objects. The name is a combination of Mo for Missouri and Zark for the Ozark Hills where it is found. Source: Lincoln County, Missouri	MOZARKITE Mozarkite is the state gemstone of Missouri, USA. It is a banded variety of Chert famous for it's delicate shades of pink, lavender, beige, cream and even black. Mozarkite takes a fine polish and is used in jewelry and other ornamental objects. The name is a combination of Mo for Missouri and Zark for the Ozark Hills where it is found. Source: Lincoln County, Missouri
MOZARKITE Mozarkite is the state gemstone of Missouri, USA. It is a banded variety of Chert famous for it's delicate shades of pink, lavender, beige, cream and even black. Mozarkite takes a fine polish and is used in jewelry and other ornamental objects. The name is a combination of Mo for Missouri and Zark for the Ozark Hills where it is found. Source: Lincoln County, Missouri	MOZARKITE Mozarkite is the state gemstone of Missouri, USA. It is a banded variety of Chert famous for it's delicate shades of pink, lavender, beige, cream and even black. Mozarkite takes a fine polish and is used in jewelry and other ornamental objects. The name is a combination of Mo for Missouri and Zark for the Ozark Hills where it is found. Source: Lincoln County, Missouri